

Michael A. Eggleston, Colonel US, Army (Retired) is an author and has published books and articles about America's wars including several about the war in Vietnam where he served two tours in the 1960s and seventies. He was born and raised in Minnesota and is a 1961 graduate of the U. S. Military Academy (USMA) at West Point. Following graduation from West Point he served three years with U. S. Forces in Germany before he was reassigned to Vietnam as a Battalion Advisor. Upon return to the U. S. he was assigned to the Tactical Department at West Point before his return to Vietnam as a battalion executive officer in 1970. Assignments that followed included the United Kingdom as an exchange officer, graduate school, battalion commander at Fort Gordon, the Pentagon, White House and the Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff as a branch chief. Eggleston has thirty year's service in the U.S. Army and twenty years' experience in industry retiring as a Senior Director. He is a member of the Sons of the American Revolution (Colonel William Grayson Chapter), the Association of Graduates, USMA, and the Minnesota Historical Society. Mr. Eggleston and his wife of 45 years, the former Margaret Rogers reside in Nokesville, Virginia. The Egglestons have four children and seven grandchildren who also reside in Virginia. The Egglestons enjoy running, volunteer work, history and are dedicated fans of DC United and the Redskins.

Eggleston can be contacted at maeggleston@comcast.net and his writings can be seen on <http://mikeeblog.typepad.com>. June 2017