

U.S. Army, Master Sergeant (RET), Leamon D. Duncan, Jr., enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1982 before graduating from high school and retired in 2010 after a successful career. After graduating high school, he first served three years as a Material Control & Accounting Specialist in the Army Quartermaster Corps. Following a short break in active service he rejoined the active Army to serve over the remainder of his career as a Chaplain Assistant in the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps. He served at every level of the Army from Battalion to Headquarters, Department of the Army, which included working on the General Officer staff. He served with Infantry, Artillery, Armor, Aviation, and at the Garrison and Installation level. His proudest moment in his career came in 2007 when he had the honor to serve alongside one of his sons in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Leamon holds a Masters of Science Degree in Business Organizational Management from the University of La Verne, La Verne, CA. He was inducted into the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi upon completion of his undergraduate work at the University of Louisville. He currently works on the Headquarters, Department of the Army staff as a Senior Operations Officer.

He is married to his high school sweetheart, the former Marsha Ryan of Cincinnati, Ohio. This October they will celebrate 34 years of marriage. They have three adult children, two sons and a daughter, two daughters-in-law, and six grandchildren; four girls and two boys. Leamon and Marsha currently reside in Dale City, VA.
